DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. A species election is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single disclosed species.

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for more than one species to be examined, the appropriate additional examination fees must be paid. The species are as follows:

- Resolvent structure (e.g. branched chain or double bond) (claims 7-10)

Applicants are required to elect a single type of resolvent structure from those recited in claims 8 and 9 (i.e. an aliphatic alcohol having a branched-chain structure in its C12 to C24 carbon chain, or an aliphatic alcohol having a double bond in its C12 to C24 carbon chain). It is also requested that applicant provide any known common or trade name(s) of the elected compounds.

Claims 12-15 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species:

- Alkyl(meth)acrylate whose alkyl group is linear and has 6 to 20 carbon atoms (claims 12-15).

Applicants are required to elect a single alkyl(meth)acrylate whose alkyl group is linear and has 6 to 20 carbon atoms from those recited in the paragraph bridging pages

Art Unit: 1611

5 and 6 of the specification as filed. It is also requested that applicant provide any known common or trade name(s) of the elected compounds.

The species are independent or distinct because as disclosed the different species have mutually exclusive characteristics for each identified species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

3. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species as set forth above. The following claims are generic: claim 1.

4. These species do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: branched chain and double bond containing aliphatic alcohols are known in the art for use in adhesive tulobuterol containing patches. Furthermore, the species are independent or distinct because as disclosed the different species have mutually exclusive characteristics for each identified species. Specifically, each of these types of agents represents a distinct type of aliphatic alcohol with unique properties. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record. Because these species cannot be considered novel in the art and are distinct for the reasons presented above, they do not share a common special technical feature and are subject to the election requirement.

Art Unit: 1611

5. Applicant is required, in reply to this action, under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

6. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

8. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

9. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
